Private view October 20th 2005 (5pm - 8pm)

In 1957 Sandra stayed near to her friends the artist Patrick Heron and his wife in Zennor, near St Ives. She rented a cottage nearby at Tregerthen, before returning to London in 1958. In 1994 she moved to St Ives where she lives and works today.

Sandra has work in numerous collections including the Tate and the Victoria and Albert Museum, London; the Arts Council of Great Britain and the Museum of Modern Art, New York. Sandra has exhibited at the Tate Gallery, London in 1963, 1967 and 1985 and had a retrospective exhibition in the Sackler Galleries of the Royal Academy, London in 1994.

Currently featured at Tate Britain to celebrate her 80th birthday, this is a wonderful opportunity to see and acquire works from this landmark British artist.

You can always see a wide range of works by some of our most highly regarded UK artists including rare and hard to find limited editions by Sir Peter Blake, Sandra Blow and Bruce McLean
